WILLIAMS TO HOLD HIS SEAT

Court of Appeals Reverses Corporation Court of Alexandria.

END OF A LONG ISSUE.

Lower Court Had Declared Second Warder Guilty of Acting as Councilman While Non-Resident.

The long drawn out fight in the courts over the seat in City Council from the Second Ward occupied by Councilman Julian Y. Williams was brought to a conclusion today when Judge J. G. Buchanan, of the Supreme Court of Appeals, sitting in Richmond, handed down an opinion reversing the decision of the Corporation Court of this city, which had found that Mr. Williams was not entitled to the seat. A special dispatch to the Gazette announcing the decision was received at noon today. As the term of Mr. Williams will expire on September 1st, there will be no further contest in the matter.

Mr. Williams, who was elected to Council four years ago, built a residence two years ago at Cottage Park, in Alexandria county. Shortly after its completion he moved there with his family and continued to live there for over a year. He, however, claimed that it was his summer residence, and that he had never given up his home in the Second ward of this city, which he still claimed as his legal residence. Six members of the Common Council, in order to test the question of residence, filed quo warranto proceedings against Mr. Williams and the suit was brought by Commonwealth's Attorney Samuel G. Brent at the relation of the six councilmen.

The case came before the Corporation Court and a jury found that Mr. Williams was not entitled to his seat. A writ of error was subsequently granted by the Supreme Court and the case was argued before that tribunal early in January of this year. Mr. Williams was represented by Attorney Gardner L. Boothe.

FIRE IN WASHINGTON.

Galliher and Huguely Yard at First and N Streets Southwest, Destroyed by Fire Today.

Fire, believed to have been of incendiary origin, early today, destroyed the dressed lumber warehouse of Galliher and Huguely, First and N streets, southwest, and for a time threatened to wipe out the entire lumber yard. The loss is estimated at more than $10,00, fully covered by insurance.

Members of the firm say they are convinced the warehouse was set on fire. A searching investigation is being made by Fire Marshal Nicholson and Police of the Fourth precinct.

Starting shortly before 5 o'clock, the flames had gained considerable headway before they were first seen, and by the time the firemen arrived, practically the whole building was in flames. The nearest lumber piles in the yard are separated from the warehouse by an alley and the blaze soon spread to them, but the firemen succeeded in checking the flames before they spread to the other stacks of lumber and only one alarm was sounded.

ICE IN THE POTOMAC RIVER.

Acqueduct Bridge May be Carried Away When Thaw Sets In.

Tons of ice packed and jammed in the Potomac river for miles above Acqueduct Bridge in Georgetown threaten the safety of that historic structure, and last night fear was expressed by old rivermen that a sudden thaw, imminent at this season, of the year might bring the ice down stream with such force that the bridge's piers would be swept away.

The situation, regarded as critical, because of the amount of ice in packs already getting in the way of the swiftly moving current, its aggravated by the fact that the drainage area of the Potomac at the present time contains more snow than for many years.

The real cause for danger is not at present in the vicinity of the bridge, it was said yesterday, but is farther up stream near the Three Sisters Islands where the ice has floated down and packed itself to great depths, then freezing over again. This might be released by warmer weather, or a warm rain would play havoc.

The Potomac river drains approximately 12,000 square miles of territory, including some of the Shenandoah valley, which gets its water from the Blue Ridge Mountains. The amount of snow in these sections, and especially on the mountains, is said to be unprecedented.

It is feared, therefore, that a breaking up of the ice would be accompanied by a rise in the river which might push with it most any obstacle getting in the way.

Recently there has been much talk of a new bridge to replace the one now standing, and the army engineers have reported to Congress that the old bridge is becoming more inadequate with the succeeding years. Representative Carlin, of Virginia, has introduced a bill in the House asking for an appropriation of $1,500,000 for the construction of a new bridge, and this measure is now pending before the House committee on rivers and harbors. Representative Carlin's action is applauded by all Virginians and Washingtonians, who have occasion to cross the bridge.

FEAST OF PURIM.

Joyous Occasion Among Israelites Throughout the World.

Today is being celebrated by the Hebrews in commemoration of the deliverance of that race from the wrath of Haman, Prime Minister of Persia, while the Jews were being held as captives several centuries before the Christian era.

Purim is one of the minor festivals or half-holidays in the Jewish religious calendar, and is celebrated in the month Adar. The feast is a festival of joy and gladness, based on the story told in the Book of Esther, one of the "Five Scrolls," which are contained in the third division of the Bible called "Sacred Writings." Its celebration commemorates the deliverance of the Jews of Persia from total annihilation.

Haman, the Prime Minister of King Ahasuerus taking offense at the lack of deference shown him by Mordecai, the Jew, in revenge plots the destruction of all the Jews. The King unaware that Esther the Queen, was a Jewess, granted Haman's request and ordered that on a certain day chosen by lot (or Pur, which means casting lots), all the Jews of the kingdoms of Persia and Media should be destroyed, and their property taken as spoils. At the intervention of Esther, the King withdrew the decree, ordered Haman, the intriguer, to be executed and appointed Mordecai as Prime Minister in his stead. The very days on which the general massacre of the Jews was to have taken place were now changed into days of joy and feasting, and given the name Purim.

Purim has been celebrated by the Jews for over two thousand years as a festival of joy and thanksgiving. It served to recall the repeated deliverances that have come to Israel in the midst of the most dire persecutions that threatened its destruction. Together with the general spirit of jolification, there also grew up the beautiful custom of sending gifts to friends and especially to the poor on this day. This custom is called Sh'lach-Monos.

In the synagogue services, this day is distinguished by reading the Book of Esther and special prayers of thanksgiving for God's protection and never failing salvation.

SENATE VISITORS AROUSE MR. HART

SAUNDERS' DEFENSE.

Myers-Christian Investigation is Declined by Sub-Committee of the House of Delegates.

Richmond, Va., March 12.—Senator Hart yesterday made an appeal to the chair for the enforcement of the rules as to visitors. He read from the manual rule 15, setting forth who shall be entitled to the privileges of the floor.

"I see people on this floor who are not embraced in the category of those privileged," said Senator Hart. "They have been here before and they were in conversation with members, manifestly undertaking to influence legislation. This is a violation of the rules which provide that visitors shall not seek to effect legislation. I ask that the rules be strictly enforced." There were seated on a bench the Rev. James Cannon, the Rev. Sidney Peters and the Rev. R. H. Pitt, all well known ministers.

Senator Saunders said that the senator from Roanoke was evidently referring to the presence of visitors with whom he had talked. He had asked them for facts and figures in connection with a bill under discussion, and they had furnished it to him. But they had volunteered no information. He protested that it was late in the session to be raising this point. It was unfair to make invidious reference and to aim at any one class of gentlemen. In the last few days it was recalled that senators on either side of the chamber had consulted visitors while discussing a bill.

Senator Echols sought to relieve the situation by calling for the regular order.

Senator Hart demanded to know if the question of enforcing the rules was not to be passed on.

Senator Echols said that the Senate was proceeding regularly and quietly and asked that Senator Hart withdraw his request.

"Mr. President, I withdraw the request for the enforcement of the rules," said Senator Hart finally.

Thus the matter ended.

Unless the House directs an investigation of the Myers-Christian controversy, Captain William M. Myers, delegate from this city, is expected to tender his resignation as a member of the House.

He said yesterday that he was prepared to take the floor today on a question of personal privilege. What he will say depends upon the report of the Committee on Privileges and Elections.

The subcommittee advised against the investigation Tuesday night, it was learned yesterday, because Dr. James Cannon suggested that if the investigation should take place others besides Dlegate Myers and Dr. Christian might be disastrously involved. He referred to repetition by Delegate Myers of a report to the effect that an advotate of the anti-vice bill was recently detected in a Richmond hotel in an act of questioning morals. This report, he feared, would almost certainly come to the front again; names would be given and developments might be seriously embarrassing.

Captain Myers seems indignant that his demand for an investigation of his charge against Dr. Christian should have been thus far refused. He declares that Dr. Christian offered an insult not alone to him, but to the whole House. This Dr. Christian denies.

Though both Delegate William M. Myers and the Rev. Dr. Asbury Christian, principals in the Myers-Christian "lobby" controversy, demanded an open and extended hearing before a subcommittee of the House Committee on Privileges and Elections Tuesday, the committee refused to grant their request, announcing that the matter at issue was not a "subject for legislative action."

The Willis resolution condemning such practices as those charged against Dr. Christian was returned to the full committee without recommendations, and the controversy between the delegate and the minister was left precisely where it was in the beginning.

ANNEXATION SUIT.

Attorneys to Ask Appeal to be Heard at Wytheville This Summer.

Samuel G. Brent, Commonwealth's Attorney, and Samuel P. Fisher, Corporation Attorney, who with John M. Johnson, represent the city of Alexandria in the annexation suit against the counties of Alexandria and Fairfax, will leave for Richmond tonight to appear before the Supreme Court of appeals in that city tomorrow. They will make a motion that the appeal of the City of Alexandria from the decision of Judge Bennett T. Gordon, of Nelson county, who refused to grant the city additional territory, be removed to the Wytheville docket so that the case can be argued in that town during the summer term of the Supreme Court. Under the present procedure, if case is retained in Richmond, the Supreme Court will not be able to hear it until late this fall and a decision will not be rendered until next January.

BATTLE FOR FIFTY CENTS.

Such is Testimony of Dr. Hennessee, Leader of His Faction.

Charlotte, N .C., March 12.—In the trial a few days ago at Morgantown, N. C., of nine members of the Pitts and Hennessee factions for an affray with deadly weapons, to which charge all of adult feudists pleaded guilty, it was brought out by the testimony of Dr. E. A. Hennessee, leader of his faction, that the ill feeling existing between the families had its beginning in a quarrel which he had with one of the Pittses, a grocer, over the sum of 50 cents.

Up to the time of the quarrel this man and the physician were bosom friends; but the doctor went on a mountain hunting trip on a mule owned by another Pitts, and he presented his bill for attending a child of his friend—a modest $1—there was on the books of the grocer $1.50 charged for the mule. He refused to pay the 50 cents due by his friend's reckoning to the other Pitts and the quarrel which had its ending in the bloody fight at Glen Alpine arose.

MEXICAN REBELS AND UNITED STATES

Said to be About to Recognize Demands Made by This Government.

THEIR "BEST FRIEND."

Will be no Repetition of Benton Incident—United States Troops to be Placed on Border.

Washington, March 12.—Mexican rebels will recognize the right of the United States to intervene as 'next friend" on behalf of foreign nations whose interests are threatened in northern Mexico, official circles believe today.

Carranza is considering Secretary of State Bryan's letter to him explaining just why this country interests itself in affairs of other nations. Bryan emphatically held as absurd the demand of the constitutionalist leader that nations which has recognized Huerta as the provisional head of the Mexican government should take up directly with the rebels matters affecting their interests.

Even if they wanted to, they could not do so under international procedure, it was explained, and a preliminary report from Consul Simpich at Nogales, indicate today that Carranza has accepted the spirit, at least of the suggestion.

Should Carranza agree that this government shall have the right at all times to have its consular representatives safeguard interests of foreigners at the request of the home governments of the latter, officials said, a grave source of international complications would immediately be removed.

The United States can assure the powers that, as far as Northern Mexico is concerned, there can be no repetition of the Benton incident, and the powers can deal directly with Huerta in the territory over which he still holds sway.

Army men believe that nearly all the cavalry now stationed in the United States is destined for duty on the Mexican border. Sending of the 17th and ninth infantry to the border was construed here as the Wilson answer to the latest utterances of Governor Colquitt.

Government officials insisted today that the movement of troops is more a peace than a warlike move. It will reassure the Americans whose interests are on the border.

FLOOD INVITED TO BOSTON.

Virginian Chosen as Successor to Roosevelt, Taft and Clark as Orator.

Washington, March 12.—Congressman Hal Flood, of Virginia, has received a telegram from James M. Curley, formerly a member of Congress, but since February 1 Mayor of Boston, inviting him to make an address in Boston on March 17 at the celebration of the one hundred and thirty-eighth anniversary of the evacuation of Boston by the British, which is one of the most important celebrations in New England.

The invitation is considered a great honor, as three years ago President Roosevelt made the address, two years ago President Taft was the orator, and last year Speaker Clark received the invitation.

The telegram to Congressman Flood was in part as follows:

"The city of Boston desires you as its guest upon March 17, the one hundred and thirty-eighth anniversary of the evacuation of Boston by the British. We should be very grateful if you will deliver a short address upon the occasion. The ceremonies are to be especially elaborate in honor of the anniversary. The honor is a fine one, Roosevelt here three years ago, President Taft two years ago, and Speaker Clark last year."

It is altogether probable that Flood will arrange with the House leaders to be absent on that date and make the address.

FLAGS TO BE RETURNED.

Governor Felder Personally Will Deliver Confederate Emblems Captured by Jersey Troops.

Washington, March 12.—Several flags which were captured from the Virginia troops composing the Confederate army will be returned to the State authorities this spring by Governor Felder, of New Jersey, according to word received from him through Joseph P. Tumulty, of New Jersey, secretary to the President.

Congressman Carter Glass was recently requested by Colonel J. F. Graves, of Vinton, Va., to ascertain if he could have returned by the State of New Jersey a Confederate flag belonging to Colonel Graves' command, and captured at Gettysburg. Representative Glass took the matter up with Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to the President, who has sent to Mr. Glass a letter received from the adjutant-general of New Jersey, W. F. Adler, Jr. who writes that he thinks "it is the intention of Governor Felder to return this (the flag) in person, together with one or two other flags that we have to the State of Virginia some time during the spring."

Adjutant-general Sadler adds: "Among the Confederate flags in our possession is one which is supposed to have flown at the headquarters of General Jackson. It is a silk division flag and I have been making strenuous efforts to find out where it was taken, but up to this time have not been able to get definite information."

The flag in which General Graves was particularly interested was one belonging to the Southside Dragoons, a Bedford county organization, about thirty of whose members survive. The flag was made for them by a Bedford county woman, and is said to have been very handsome.

"RED LIGHT" BILL RECEIVES QUIETUS

Virginia Senate Will Not Take up Measure Out of Regular Order.

ANTI-SHIPPING BILL.

Chalkley's Prediction Concerning Woman Suffrage—House Favors Initiative and Referendum.

Richmond, March 12.—The Senate refused to suspend the rules to take the Saunders anti-nuisance bill up out of its order, which means the death-knell of the bill designed to abolish the "red light" districts of the cities.

The House has passed two companion resolutions providing for ninety day sessions of the Legislature.

One passed by Senate provides for straight ninety-day session, the other for dividend session of forty-five days one year and forty-five next.

The next General Assembly will select one of the resolutions and submit it to the people as a proposed Constitutional amendment.

The Virginia house of delegates, by a vote of 76 to 18, defeated the bill providing for equal suffrage. Mr. Chalkley, of Wise, one of the patrons of the bill, in urging its passage, said every national party would have in its platform in 1916 a woman suffrage plank, and that within a few years those now opposing suffrage would be stumping the State in its favor.

The rejection of the measure by the lower branch means that it will not go to the Senate, and the question cannot be brought up again at this session. Under the Virginia law any bill to change the constitution must be approved by two successive legislatures, and then submitted to the people for ratification. At the earliest, the people of Virginia could not vote on the woman suffrage ameadment before the fall of 1918, and then only in the event that the general assembly passes the bill in 1916 and again in 1918.

The house, by a vote of 52 to 24, passed the Harrison-Gordon resolutions, providing for an amendment to the State constitution to incorporate therein the principles of the initiative and referendum. If concurred in by the senate the amendment must lay over until the next regular session of the general assembly, in 1916, when it must again be adopted by each branch, and then be submitted to a vote of the people in the succeeding November election.

The house concurred in the Senate amendments to the house bill providing for the appointment of a tax commission of ten members, the principal amendment being that the commission shall report bills both for an equalization and a segregation plan of taxation.

The Senate by a vote of 22 to 12 yesterday discharged the Finance Committee from further consideration of the Pennington anti-shipping bill, reported that morning from the House, and placed it on the calendar. The discharge of the committee was effected over the protest of Senators Montague and Cannon, who urged that the Senate do not single out for special preference at this late day in the session any single measure.

Senator Mapp moved that the rules be suspended and the bill be taken up out of its order for the purpose of being placed on its passage. The motion failed to muster twenty-seven affirmative votes, and was defeated. It polled 20 "ayes," and 14 "noes" the members voting as follows.

MAY LOSE THEIR JOBS.

Workmen to the number of 150 are to be laid off at the navy yard Washington April 1 unless some work is found for them to do. The commandant has money in hand to pay these men for their labor, but demand for the products of the big machine shops, judging from present indications, will fall away about that time to this extent.

There is a chance, however, that two-thirds of these workmen, whose pay averages $3.98 a day, may be kept on the rolls, through the undertaking by the yard to manufacture 100 torpedoes needed for warships. Two bids for this work are already in—one from the Newport torpedo station and the other from a private firm.

"RED LIGHT" DISTRICT

Influx of Washingtonians and Soldiers May Cause Wipeout of Section

Three separate investigations of the "red light" district of Alexandria and the disorders caused by the influx of Washingtonians and soldiers from the three forts in the vicinity of this city have been commenced which it is believed will result in the wiping out of the segregated district here. On Monday night at the regular monthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce the question was discussed and as a result a committee was appointed to make a study of the situation and interview the city officials as to their views on the suppression of the district. This committee has had a meeting but pending a more thorough investigation has refused to give out any statement as to their plans or even as to the make-up of the committee. Interviews were had yesterday with Mayor Thomas A. Fisher and Commonwealth Attorney Samuel G. Brent but these gentlemen refused to give out any information pending a final decision in the matter.

A second investigation is being made by several members of the city council, who on Wednesday interviewed Superintendent Rich of the Washington-Virginia Railway as to the reference to the disorders on the electric cars between Washington and Alexandria. It was pointed out that the cars late at night are crowded with drunken men and that other passengers are placed at great discomfort. The councilmen were assured that the railway company was doing all in its power to keep order and had recently employed four special officers who were detailed to ride on the cars at night.

A number of ladies have also met to discuss the situation and will probably take some action during the next few days. The Rev. C.R.Strausburg, secretary of the Alexandria Ministerial Association, said that no action had been taken by the association as yet except to sign a petition to the state legislature to pass an injunction and abatement bill similar to the Kenyon law in effect in the District of Columbia.

ECLIPSE NOT WELL SEEN.

Clouds Balk Astronomers at Naval Observatory.

Dense snow clouds which hung over Alexandria last night prevented people from making accurate observations of the moon's eclipse.

Only at intervals, when the winds separated the clouds, were the gazers able to discern the partially obscured satellite.

The moon entered the earth's shadow at precisely 9.41 8-10 o'clock, and was more than nine-tenths obscured before it finally emerged about three hours later.

ONE KILLED; THREE HURT.

Kerosene Can Explodes in Home in Charlottesville.

Charlottesville, Va. March 12.—An explosion of a can of kerosene oil at the home of Mr. C. H. Casterton, on Rose Hilll, a few nights ago, came near wiping out the four children of the household. Ryland, the oldest son, aged nine, died later at the University Hospital. Clarence, aged seven, and Hokon, aged five, patients in the hospital, are not expected to survive, as both are fearfully burned. The youngest child, Katherine, aged three, is at the Casterton home, with her feet and hands badly burned.

The children, who were left alone in the house, attempted to start a fire in the kitchen range with oil. The quartette was standing around the stove when the oil exploded, the bottom of the can being blown out. Ryland, the eldest boy, though severely burned about the face and body, rushed out of doors with his two brothers and rolled them in the snow. He swallowed some of the blaze, however, and soon collapsed. A physician was summoned and three of the children rushed to the hospital.

Charged With Extortion.

Woodstock, Va., March 12.—Taylor U. Borden, who frequently has served as special United States officer in moonshine raids in Shenandoah county, was arraigned before Justice W. B. Allen here this week and sent to the grand jury on the charge of extortion. Later the grand jury found a true bill against Borden. The alleged offense occurred several months ago, when the officer, according to the charges, threatened the arrest of J. W. Heishman, a merchant, for having two brands of tobacco in the same box. For a consideration, it is asserted, he promised not to report Heishman and gave him a receipt for the money.

STEAL DOPE FOR WOMEN.

Cocaine Alleged to be Smuggled From Fort Monroe by Soldiers.

Newport News, Va., March 12.—That cocaine is being brought to this city by soldiers from Fort Monroe and disposed of to women in disorderly houses developed from the evidence adduced in the Police Court here in the hearing of the case of May Monday, a white woman, charged with being not of good fame.

Evidence that this traffic in cocaine and other "dope" was being engaged in the red light district has been known to the police for some time, but since the beginning of this year reports have become so numerous that the authorities made unusual exertions and last week captured Edward J. Shelton, a soldier, who is alleged to have stolen more than $90 worth of the "stuff" from the dispensary at the fort.

Shelton is alleged to have made a full and complete confession to the local police when arrested, and named several women to whom he had sold cocaine, and is also alleged to have told the police that the practice was being regularly engaged in by other soldiers from the fort.

Several of the women were notified to come to the police station and each, with two exceptions, it is said, corroborated Shelton's statements as to the extent of the traffic. The other two, Goldie Richardson and May Monday, engaged attorneys and refused to give any details or to leave the city.

The arrest of Shelton was indirectly made through the efforts of the authorities of the fort, who notified the local police that a large amount of cocaine had been stolen and they suspected Shelton of the theft. Shelton was found in a disorderly house that night and arrested as a fugitive from justice.

He was ordered turned over to the fort authorities by Justice Brown with the understanding that he would be produced in the Police Court, but he was not, and Justice Brown dismissed the case.

Both of the women who were in the Police Court were ordered to leave town immediately or be sent to jail. They were given twenty-four hours in which to make their choice.

THE MYERS-CHRISTIAN INCIDENT.

The aftermath of the charges made by Delegate Myers against Rev. Dr. Christian in the House of Delegates a few days ago was apparent yesterday when Senator Hart attempted to induce the Lieutenant-Governor to enforce the rules of the Senate which forbid the appearance on the floor of persons not connected with the legislative department of the state. Several ministers of the gospel were on the floor at the time. Senator Hart, in the interest of peace, did not press his request, but allowed the Senate to proceed with the regular order of business.

There is a probability of Delegate Myers resigning his seat, as the subcommittee refused to make a report on the allegations he made against Rev. Dr. Christian.

In the year 1870, when the late Edgar Snowden, Jr., was the senator from this district, the legislative halls were often infested by men who had no official position in the state no city, but who spent most of their leisure hours on the floor of the Senate or House. On one occasion, when a man who was championing a measure for his own aggrandisement made himself prominent on the floor of the Senate, Mr. Snowden called attention to the rule referred to by Senator Hart yesterday. The visitor was not ejected, but the attention of the Senate, in fact, the entire state, was called to this individual.

In countries operated by representative governments, there seems to be a notion that the floors of legislative halls should be open to the general public, and that it is in order for any person to prod or instruct the representatives of the people.

The British House of Commons, in the younger days of Charles Dickens when the novelist was employed as a reporter in that body for its own protection, instituted star chambers proceedings, and ejected newspaper men and all others not connected with the Parliament.

Many years ago a knockdown and dragout fight occurred on the floor of the Common Council chamber in Alexandria, the combatants being an Alderman and a man who was not a member of either board. The trouble was brought on by objectionable remarks made by the latter while a joint session was being held.

Their feet rooted in tar on the roof of a skyscraper, in New York, Morris Kenscher and Policeman Magner were rescued when Patrolman Christainsen pulled them out with a rope.

VIRGINIANS WILL VOTE FOR REPEAL.

The majority of the Virginia congressional delegation, will in all probability, be found voting for the repeal of the clause in the Panama Canal act, which exempts American coastwise vessels from payment of canal tolls, when the vote is taken on the bill next week. So far, only two members—Congressmen Flood and Montague—have expressed themselves regarding their votes on the proposition which was urged by President Wilson in his address to Congress last week.

Congressman Montague cast his vote in favor of the repeal when the House Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce voted last week to report the bill favorably to the House. Mr. Montague, who is a member of that committee, explained that in casting his vote he had not considered the economic or commercial side of the matter, but that he felt morally bound to support the treaty, the proper construction of which he believes, prohibits such an exemption.

Congressman Flood holds a delicate position in regard to the bill. As chairman of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs, which handles all legislation of an international nature, he must vote for the repeal, in accordance with the President's wishes, or some people will insist that the President's view of the international point at issue differs with that of the House committee.

By a peculiar coincidence, not a single member of the Virginia delegation personally voted for or against the exemption clause when it was passed on May 23, 1912. The record of the vote on the exemption shows that Carlin, Flood, Glass, Hay, Holland, Lamb, Saunders, Slemp, Turnbull, and Jones were "not voting." It also shows that Glass had a general pair with Slemp; that Turnbull (for tolls) was paired with Saunders (against tolls) and Hay, (for tolls) was paired with Moon, of Tennessee (against tolls.)

Hay will in all probability vote as he did last time against the exemption; Montague and Saunders will vote against exemption, and Saunders will probably reverse his apparent attitude in being paired last time for the exemption.

It is probable that several members of the delegation will ask for ten minutes or more to speak on the floor, in explanation of their vote, and to make clear their reasons for casting their ballot against one of the planks in the Baltimore platform.

BANKER SENT TO SING SING.

Cummins, of Carnegie Trust, Begins Sentence After Three Years.

New York, March 12.—William J. Cummins, one time head of the defunct Carnegie Trust Company, who was convicted nearly three years ago of the larceny of $140,000, was yesterday taken from the Tombs to Sing Sing prison to serve out a sentence of not less than four years and eight months, not more than eight years and eight months.

By reason of appeals and other moves, counsel for Cummins kept him out of Sing Sing for nearly 900 days after his conviction. He will now appeal to Governor Glynn for a pardon.

NEWS OF THE DAY

A suffragette arson squad early yesterday set fire and destroyed all the buildings belonging to the town corporation at Bulcote, six miles north east of Nottingham, England. The loss is many thousands of dollars. Suffrage literature was found strewn about the vicinity.

Entering the Fidelity Loan Company's store at Pittsburgh, Pa., at noon yesterday, two young men purchased a revolver and box of cartridges, loaded the pistol and ordered the proprietor, Morris Coblin to throw up his hands. When he refused the desperadoes shot him through the head. After the shooting the men fled. One boarded a street car, but was captured. The other escaped. Coblin is in a critical condition.

John A. Price, a clerk, aged 36, boarding at the home of Mrs. Hattie Morse, a widow, in New York, this afternoon shot and probably fatally wounded the woman and then committed suicide. The deed is said to have followed Mrs. Morse's action in ordering Price to leave the house because he was annoying her with his attentions.

Two members of the Montreal, Can., police force were shot to death yesterday while trying to arrest four armed desperadoes who had been detected robbing a store.

That $500,000 has been contributed anonymously toward the building of the great National Cathedral of the Protestant Episcopal Church, on Mt. St. Alban, was made known yesterday afternoon by Canon William De Vries. He made the announcement at the daily evening prayer at 4 o'clock in the Bethlehem Chapel, which constitutes the crypt of the great structure which will rank high amongst the famous temples of the world in years to come. This is not the first contribution received anonymously for the building of the cathedral, although it is the largest.

The latest fad among women in New York is having their photographs snapped while in bed. The custom has also taken root in London.

Believing they may find the body of a beautiful young woman known as Concetta, working under the direction of Coroner Ilse and the sheriff continued to dig up the yard in the rear of Charles Bombara's hotel on the Tarrytown, New York, road yesterday. Concetta is said to have been used by a band of men known as the "murder syndicate" to lure victims to their death, and the authorities believe she was finally killed by the "syndicate" for fear she would reveal their operations. The "murder syndicate is believed to have been responsible for the death of a half dozen persons.

BABE ON RED-HOT STOVE.

Sister Reappears in Time to Halt Little Climber's Death.

Chester, Pa., March 12.—The chance reappearance of Mary Willis, sister of 15-months-old Margaret Willis, daughter of Mrs. Emma Willis, averted a tragic death. The infant was found on top of the red-hot stove in the kitchen with its clothing ablaze and terribly burned about the limbs and body.

Dragging the child from the stove, Mary wrapped her in a heavy blanket. A physician was subsequently summoned. The infant will recover.

We Promise You Relief from All Stomach Troubles Or Your Money Back

We honestly believe we have the best remedy in the world for indigestion and dyspepsia. We urge you to try it at our risk. If it doesn't relieve you—as we feel sure it will—we'll give back your money without a word. You know us—your family druggist. You know we wouldn't dare recommend anything we didn't know about, nor dare to break a promise. Therefore, when we recommend any remedy it is because we believe it to be better than any other to relieve the ailment for which it is made, and when we prove our faith in it and our sincerity toward you by promising to give back your money if it doesn't relieve you and in every way satisfy you, you have no possible excuse for doubt or hesitation.

Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets

are, we honestly believe, the best remedy made for Indigestion, Dyspepsia and all other Stomach Ills

We Know They're Good

Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, in addition to other ingredients, contain Pepsin and Bismuth, two great digestive aids used by the entire medical profession. They soothe the inflamed stomach, check the heartburn and distress, stimulate a healthy secretion of the gastric juice, aid in rapid and comfortable digestion of the food and help to quickly convert it into rich red blood, and thereby into flesh, bone and muscle. They relieve stomach distress promptly, and, used regularly for a short time, tend to restore the stomach to a comfortable, easy-acting, healthy state. They aid greatly to promote regular bowel action.

Delays Are Dangerous

Don't neglect indigestion, for it frequently leads to all sorts of ills and complications. The pain and discomfort is not the most unfortunate part. The fact that when the stomach is not acting right, the material needed to repair the wastes that are constantly taking place in the body is not being given to the blood either in the proper condition or fast enough is far more serious. Nothing will cause more trouble than an unhealthy stomach. The blues, debility, lack of strength and energy, constipation, biliousness, headaches and scores of other serious ailments result from the failure of the stomach to properly do its work.

You Risk No Money

Our willingness to have you use Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets entirely at our risk proves our faith in them. We always sell them this way, and it is because we know that they have greatly benefited scores of sufferers to whom we have sold them. There's no red tape about our guarantee. It means just what it says. We'll ask you no questions. You needn't sign anything. Your word is enough for us. We know that when they help you you will consider it money well spent even if they had cost you ten times as much. If they don't help you, the money you paid for them is yours, and we want you to have it.

Sold only at the more than 7,000 Rexall Stores—the World's Greatest Drug Stores. In convenient boxes—three sizes: 25c, 50c, $1.00

The retail merchant who has Bell telephone service has an always-open door. In stormy weather and in sunshine the telephone provides a means of receiving orders.

Then, there is the convenience of it to the retail merchant in placing rush orders with the wholesale house.

Lastly, the telephone in a retail store gives that store a certain prestige over the stores without telephone service.

PROHIBITION CRUSADE.

State Executive Committee Meets And Perfects Plans.

Richmond, March 12.—At the regular quarterly meeting of the State executive committee of the Woman's Prohibition League of America, held at headquarters yesterday afternoon, a group of enthusiastic workers gathered to plan and arrange a campaign for State-wide prohibiton in this city and State. Much work of importance was done.

Miss Edith Willis, lecturer for the scientific temperance bureau of Boston, has been engaged to travel over the State, representing this organization for six weeks.

It was decided to present two of the prizes to the debaters in the Intercollegiate Prohibition Association's contest which will be held in this city about April 20th.

They will also entertain fifteen young men who will come to Richmond to participate in the debate.

The field secretary reported twelve new leagues and one county organized in the last quarter. The reports from the leagues of work accomplished were most encouraging.

Wednesday, April 15th was set apart as a day of fasting and prayer for the entire organization in the city and State.

Resolved, That, with deep appreciation, we thank God for such a strong, brave, consecrated preacher of the gospel as the Rev. W. Asbury Christian; that we not only sympathize with him in the unwarranted attack made upon his character and calling as a preacher of the Word by a member of the legislature, but each member of this organization stands shoulder to shoulder with him in his fight for a clean, pure city and State. We pledge him our moral support nad co-operation in all that he does for the uplift of humanity and the protection of the home.

FUTILITY OF PROHIBITION.

Raleigh Rector Declares Consumption of Whiskey Has Not Decreased.

Raleigh, N. C., March 12.—Dr. T. McK. Pittinger, rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd (Episcopal), in the course of a Lenten sermon Sunday morning, declared that while he has respect for the sumptuary laws of the day that they can at best be only suggestive for the moral uplift and only partially effective. Take the prohibition law in this State, he said, and with all the efforts of the leaders for prohibition, the officers of the law, the courts and the law making powers everybody knows that while the manufacture and sale in this state has been reduced the desire for and consumption of liquors is not one bit less than when the law was passed.

After all, he said, the only sure relief from the drink evil is to get hold on the individual and bring him into that state of moral and Christian uplift that will save him from this and other sins.

PASSING OF MURPHY.

New York, March 12.—The ousting of Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, and several of his followers, from the membership of the National Democratic Club created a stir in political circles yesterday.

The ostensible reason given during the heated debate over the matter at the club Tuesday night was that Murphy was behind in his dues.

Judge Edward F. O'Dwyer, president of the club, who has been leading the fight against Murphy, introduced a resolution calling for the elimination of the Tammany leader and the other but that was not formally adopted,as the point was upheld that under the rules the men were automatically dropped as they had not paid their dues.

Thomas F. Smith, secretary of Tammany Hall, appealed against the ruling and tendered a check for the money due. When that was refused he asked for a vote. Seventeen members of the board of governors were present, and they decided against the appeal 10 to 7. In the course of the debate, Smith said the men would not submit to such humiliation.

"The names were picked out for an obvious purpose," he said, "and we will have them restored to the rolls."

Judge O'Dwyer replied that he could give a very good reason for the club's action.

"They were dropped," he said, "for the best interests of the club and the Democratic party."

MOB TRIES TO LYNCH FOUR.

Men Accused of Attacking Nurse Saved by Police.

Kansas City, Mo., March 12.—A heavy guard of police was necessary to convey from police headquarters to the county prosecutor's office four young men identified Tuesday night by Mrs. Gertrude Schidler, a trained nurse, as members of a band of six who had lured her to a room Monday night and brutally assaulted her. A crowd of several hundred gathered about police headquarters and threatened to lynch the men.

A small force of police attempting to take the accused men through the crowd earlier in the day were unable to push through the throng. A man who made a lunge at one of the prisoners was felled by a policeman's club. The police retreated within the station with their prisoners until a larger escort could be summoned.

Mrs. Schidler declared she had been enticed to a room in a resort by a story that a doctor in the building had a case for her. After suffering the most revolting indignities at the hands of the six men, she said she made her way to the roof of an adjoining building, whence a policeman rescued her.

The four men arrested are Victor Gueringer, one of the owners of the resort; L. V. Brennan, an insurance agent; T. L. Kinevan, a solicitor, and Oscar Morrison, a plumbers' helper. They were charged with a statutory offense punishable in Missouri by death on the gallows.
